DOUGLAS TAYLOR,
BOOK AND CATALOGUE PRINTER.
89 NASSAU ST., N. Y.

With a catalogue in the hands of no intelligent buyer—and no buyers of books are presumed to be of that class—I seem quite unnecessary to draw particular attention to separate lots or to specialities, but desiring them of importance, the writer craves permission to specify a few of the classes and lots catalogued in the following pages; but the absence of the manuscript catalogue prevents him from asking attention to many things which he would mention but for that fact.

IN NUMISMATICS this collection contains many promised and desirable works, particularly those of Bailey, Mallin and others on stage pieces and obdualinal coins. In this line an attempt has been made, not only to gather a good working library on Numismatics, but to obtain everything that has been printed on the subject of coins, coinage, and the coin trade in America; not only such books as pretend to treat of the matter fully, but all catalogues of public and private collections, auction sales, whenever held, from the earliest period of such sales to the present; also the various articles which have from time to time appeared in newspapers and periodicals. The collection of Catalogues is unrivalled, and of newspaper cuttings is hardly less complete; but owing to their great number they are mostly omitted from this catalogue.

CRIMINAL TRIALS.—The purchase of the entire stock of the largest dealer in the United States has enabled the owner to present here the most extensive collection of such literature that has ever been offered in this country.

LOCAL HISTORY AND GEOGRAPHY.—An extensive list will here be found, under which head are many pamphlets which, hardly reaching the dignity of local histories, have, nevertheless, a local significance and value.

AMERICAN ANTIQUARIAN.—Besides the writings of most American authors on this subject, a complete series of the reports of the Smithsonian Institution, there are a large number of the Smithsonian Contributions to Knowledge, and miscellaneous publications; besides the works of English and other authors: Sir John Lubbock, Evans, Gastaldi, Jewett, La Crosse, Nelson, Stevens, Westropp and others.

EARLY NEW ENGLAND LITERATURE.—Including many works by the father and son, Increase and Cotton Mather, several of which, concerning the early New England wives, are of the highest merit.

Treating on this subject, the works of Pondellow and Church, not less important than those of the Mathers, will likewise be found. Morton's New England Memorial for its rarity and fine condition will not be overlooked. These books are mostly unbound, the present owner preferring to leave the matter of binding to those into whose hands the books may now fall.

PRINTING CLUBS.—Here will be found a large and remarkable collection, the issues of various clubs, societies, and private gentlemen. All of these books are printed in limited numbers, and several are presentation copies, printed especially for the present owner, mostly in the highest style of the printer's art, on India paper, Whatman's drawing paper, heavy cardboard, &c., making, in some cases, specimens entirely unique.

THE WORKS OF AMATEURS.—A new phase of authorship and publishing has sprung up within a few years, comprising innumerable books and papers. Some years ago an attempt was made to gather these, and there is here offered a collection of the books and papers such as has never before been brought together. As the amateur writers and publishers of a few years ago are among the prominent authors and editors of to-day, these books and papers are deemed well worthy of preservation in some public library or large collection of books. To form a similar collection would now be nearly impossible, and such a thing as a complete series would be absolutely unprocureable.

WASHINGTON.—A collection of Eulogies, Orations and Sermons pronounced on the occasion of the death of General Washington. Among these are many of extreme rarity, in fact so rare as to be now almost unknown; one of these, with the autograph of Samuel G. Drake, is bound in a volume with several pamphlets by the same author, one Bishop, and was bought by Mr. Drake in a former sale for $100.00.

Concerning the catalogue itself, the distance from the printer has rendered it impracticable for the writer to revise the copy, and only most attentive and constant care could have prevented his excellent and accomplished printer from making a perfect botch from the crabbed manuscript with which he has been obliged to supply him, and while he would be glad to correct some minor errors which he regrets, but which the reader will kindly correct, he congratulates himself on their small number and comparative unimportance.

On page 31, No. 519, "A Journal, &c.," is a separate work and ought so to appear after No. 519. Somewhere in the Brinley Catalogue Mr. Trumbull passes over a similar error so gracefully that I wish the Brinley Catalogue were before me that I might quote his words.

Concerning this book, Mr. Trumbull quotes as follows: "This is one of the rarest books of its class. I have never seen a copy for sale." J. Sabin's Dictionary, N.Y. 1896. Brainerd's copy was formerly the property of Mr. Samuel G. Drake, and after describing it Mr. Trumbull says: "It may be doubted if any collector of this generation will again have the opportunity of buying one so good as this." The copy here offered is in extra fine condition, being clean and perfect, except the lower margin is in places too closely trimmed, cutting into a few of the catch words and the very last line in the book on page 120 was trimmed off. The words missing are "him thanks for his good services done." A little blood-stain will be seen on page 102, but the leaves are remarkably clean, white and sound, and, with the exception of one thought by Dr. Samuel A. Green in Edinburgh and lately from the Murphy Library, this copy is probably the best known.

Title, verso, to the reader, signed Increase Mather, 2 pp. An Exhortation, &c., 20 pp. Ending with Errata.

Mr. Trembhall, in referring to this book, says:—"No edition can be too strong be characteristic the scarcity of the one extant book which so long escaped the search of American collectors." &c. At the time when Trembhall wrote, Mr. Baber, who had recently compiled the Memoirs catalogue, referring to this book, said:—"Perhaps on copy of it exists," and said that the edition was not mentioned by Lowndes nor elsewhere. In an Inventory he says of this exceedingly rare book:—"Two copies only are known—Mr. Brinsley's and one in England." This is believed to be only the third known at the present writing. The first and—To the reader—has a subacute diagonal cut out, and is otherwise blighted by a column of dirty, illegible, close sets on the page, with which occupies the whole work, including the second title—An Earnest Exhortation, &c.—conspicuous as an outlier, which is ample, and in other particulars, except where, which are incident to old age. In copying the title to the second, Mr. Baber fell into the error of confounding "An Earnest Exhortation" for "A Serious Exhortation," &c.

334 ——— A Call to the Rising Generation (title-page wanting. To the Reader, signed Increase Mather, 1679, pp. 178, blank leaf. Bound in the same vol., Prayer for the Rising Generation [or a] Sermon [Wherein Godly Parents are encouraged to Pray] and Believe for their Children] A Sermon preached from the text they set apart by the second Church in Boston, who followed by three texts of Scripture, and a Latin quotation of two lines. Small 8vo, old sheep. Printed by R. P., anno domini 1685. Titles and one leaf to the Reader signed Increase Mather, pp. 165-178. In the same volume, A | Sermon | (Preached at the Lecture at Boston, in New-England, the eighteenth of the Moneth 1674. | When two men were Executed, who | had Murthered their Master) wherein is showed | That Excess in Wickedness doth bring | untimely death. | The Second Impression | by Increase Mather, teacher of a Church of Christ. | Quotation 7 lines. Small 8vo. Printed by R. P. for J. Brunning in Boston, 1685.

Three distinct works, the first imperfect as stated, the second complete, but like the entire volume, somewhat wormed; the third is imperfect; but particularly rare. The volume contains a fourth work with separate title-page and imprint: A discourse concerning the danger of apostacy; being Increase Mather's Election Sermon delivered May 23d, 1677. Small 8vo. Printed by R. P., anno domini 1685. The last I do not find under its proper title among the works of Increase Mather in Sabin's Dictionary.

- 535 ——— A Discourse | concerning | Faith and Fervency | in | Prayer, | And the Glorious Kingdom of the | Lord Jesus Christ on | Earth Now Approaching. | delivered in several Sermons in which the signs of the present | Times are Considered, with a true | Account of the late wonderful and | Astonishing Success of the Gospel | in Ceylon, Amboina, and Malabar. | by I. Mather, D.D. Preface, 19 pp. Prayer ought to be with Faith and Fervency, pp. 104. Followed by the Appendix and Contents (the latter imperfect). Small 8vo, old sheep. Boston in N. E.: Printed by B. Green for T. Green at his shop in Middle St. 1710

Same date, but imprint different from Brinley's copy or Sabin's, showing that the same printer executed three editions for different customers.

- 536 ——— Angelographia, | or | A Discourse | Concerning the Nature and Power of the | Holy Angels, and the Great Benefit | which the True Fearers of God Received | by their Ministry: | Delivered in several | Sermons: | To which is added, A Sermon concerning the Sin and | Misery of the Fallen Angels: | Also a Disquisition concerning | Angelical-Apparitions. | By Increase Mather, President of Harvard | Colledge, in Cambridge, and Preacher of the | Gospel at Boston in New-England. | Small 8vo, old sheep. Printed by B. Green and J. Allen for Samuel Phillips

Title, epistle dedicatory, and To the Reader, 8 leaves. A Discourse, etc., pp. 103. The Sin and Misery of the Fallen Angels, pp. 103-132. Followed by a Disquisition concerning Angelical Apparitions in answer to a case of conscience, etc., separate title. Boston, 1696, pp. 44. Autographs of Leonard Withington and his grandfather Phillip. A little stained with age, and two leaves a little torn; but no portion missing.

- 537 ——— An | Historical Discourse | concerning the | Prevalency | of | Prayer | Wherein is showed that New-England's late Deliverance from the | Rage of the Hethen, is an Excellent Answer of Prayer | By Increase MaQuar | Teacher of a Church in Boston in New-England | 4to. Boston: printed and sold by John Foster, 1677. Title-page, 1 leaf. To the Reader, signed Increase MaQuar, 2 pp. Historical-Discourse, 78 pp., and one blank.

Very fine and extremely rare, value especially to the aid ordered through prayer by the N. E. Clergy against the Indians.

- 538 ——— A Relation | Of the Troubles which have befallen in | New-England, | By reason of the Indians there; | From the Year 1614, to the Year 1675. | Wherein the frequent Conspiracyes of the Indians to cutt off the | English, and the wonderfull providence of God, in disposing their devices, is declared. | Together with an Historical Discourse concerning the Prevalency of | Prayer | shewing that New-England's late deliverance from the Rage of the | Heathen is an eminent Answer of Prayer. | By Increase MaQuar | Teacher of a Church in Boston in New-England. Six lines Scripture-quotations, three lines Latin. 4to. Boston. Printed and sold by John Foster 1677. The second title is as follows: An | Historical Discourse | Concerning the | Prevalency | of | Prayer | Wherein is shewed that New-England's late Deliverance from the | Rage of the Heathen, is an eminent Answer of Prayer | By Increase MaQuar. 4to. Boston: Printed and sold by John Foster 1677. Title-page and one leaf signed Increase MaQuar, no Historical Discourse, pp. 49.

Sabin says: A very rare work. The "Historical Discourse" appears to have been printed before the "Troubles," the printing of both under one title being an afterthought. The title-page of the "Relation" bears the autograph of Edward Wigglesworth and a number of old New England divines. Catalogue as follows: Title, 1 leaf. To the Reader, signed Increase MaQuar, 2 leaves. A Relation, pp. 78; title-page new but reading complete. A few of the leaves following the title-page show slight injury at one of the lower corners. But the book is in very good condition.

- 539 ——— Practical Truths | Tending to Promote the | Power of Godliness | &c. A course of Sunday sermons, with separate running titles (title-page wanting, also a few pages at the end). Old sheep.

Extremely rare; autograph of Michael Wigglesworth on the title-page.

542 ——— The | Life and Death | of | That reverend man of God, | Mr. Richard Mather, | teacher of the Church | in | New England. | Three texts of Scripture and motto. Title, verso blank, one leaf to the Churches, &c., signed Increase Mather, pp. 38. 4to

Cambridge: printed by S. G. and M. J., 1670

Excessively rare, and a fine copy. Unblemished, except trifling stains by age, pp. 35 and 36, from the inner corner of which a piece is missing, destroying on each of three pages a small portion of four lines; on the bottom of the title-page is written the last line wanting from Church's "Philip's War." This extremely rare first edition of Morton's Memorial is complete, and in remarkably good condition. Title, 1 p.; verso, blank. To the Reader, one blank page, 1 p. signed John Higginson and Thos. Thacher. The epistle dedicatory, 4 p., signed Nathaniel Morton. To the Christian Reader, 4 pp., signed Nathaniel Morton. New England's Memorials, pp. 198. From the library of Edward Wigglesworth, President of Harvard College; his autograph on the title-page.

On the fly-leaf, autograph of John Andrews, and of Rev.

Leonard Willoughby, with forest of its passages by the holes of the Plover. The leaves are somewhat stained by age, but were good preserved throughout. A speck of fire has destroyed them on first surface on page 8 and 10. The damaged spot about 4 inch wide in diameter. A similar accident has caused a latrine perforation through the last, pages 40 and 50.

A volume of extreme rarity, in original sheep binding. First issue, a little damaged at the fore- & right hand corner, a blurring such as Mr. Foulton's good-humored people noted by the remark "The injury is so slight that no volume of less rarity and bibliographical importance it would not be worth mention."

- 554 TRIAL.—WITCHCRAFT. Burroughs, George; Bishop, Bridgett; Howe, Elizabeth; and Carrier, Martha, all for the same crime. Excerpts taken from Cotton Mather's "More Wonders of the Invisible World." The original edition. Printed in Boston by Benj. Harris, 1693

Sabin says : " Of all works by the Mathers, this is probably the rarest, and perhaps also one of the most important."

Cotton Mather's conduct towards the victims of the terrible Witchcraft delusion in Salem, his persecution particularly of his reverend brother Geo. Burroughs; his malignity toward Martha Carrier, whom he denounces as a "rampant hag"; show him to have been as wicked as he was learned, and as demoniac as the invisible spirits of which he gabbled so learnedly and glibly. The opportunity to obtain these trials in the original edition, except by the destruction of a priceless volume, will not be likely to occur again.

- This, which antedates the Sharpless genealogy, which is the first published in America making pretension to any degree of completeness, is, so far as I am aware, totally unknown. It is not mentioned by Whitmore in any of his genealogical works, by Bartlett in his Bibliography of Rhode Island, nor by Sabin. It is certainly of extreme rarity.

Adam, as vouched for by Old Wells, of the New York
College of Heraldry, claim a similar starting point.

 And saw such doll post with his brother & grandpapa, Astonish'd, confound'd, cried Saturn—"By God!

- This paper, issued weekly for many years, free to all who asked, was written, printed and published by the Oneida Community, an organization established at Oneida, N. Y., and Wallingford, Conn. They maintained a practically "free press" for more than forty years, and established a mercantile reputation of the very highest and kept it unsullied. When the original members had grown old persecution drove them from a home of princely beauty, and compelled them to disorganize their society, which they did by first providing for all dependents, and next making the large property a joint stock association, an organization which they have since maintained. This newspaper traces the daily life of the Community and of separate members, from the commencement of publication till near the end. It is presumed that another so nearly complete copy could not be obtained.

NUMISMATICS.

In addition to numerous well-known works on this subject, the collection following comprises a great variety of periodicals, circulars, &c., relating to coins and to the coin trade in America. The attempt to collect everything on the subject printed in this country was commenced many years ago, and has been followed up from that day to this, so that very little of the transient literature of the subject has escaped attention. As illustrating the difficulty of procuring some of the pieces of this class, the writer may say that wanting, in order to perfect his collection, a single number of a little newspaper printed in Chicago just before the great fire, after writing to correspondents all over the country, he finally procured the desideratum from San Francisco from the publisher, who had removed to that city, and who happened to have preserved a single copy of the paper.

NUMISMATIC AUCTION SALE CATALOGUES.

Catalogues by various dealers, all printed, and the list comprises nearly all the important collections ever sold in America. As elsewhere stated, this collection includes nearly everything written in America pertaining to numismatics, including the auction sale catalogues almost without exception, in all of which it was the original intention to give a place, but the prodigious number renders that plan impracticable. Hence it was relinquished, and only the collection of printed catalogues is retained, of which it is believed, none are omitted. All are in fine condition, the prints generally in ink, and with few exceptions in red. The names of owners are generally omitted, though few important catalogues are wanting in the collection.

Many of the following catalogues are illustrated. Each are designated by I, followed by a numeral indicating the number of plates.

PRIVATE COLLECTIONS CATALOGUES.

The compiler of this Catalogue endeavored to bring together a good working collection of books on Numismatics, and in addition some years ago he undertook to obtain everything possible issued on the subject by amateur collectors and dealers. His plan comprehended not only catalogues of private collections, but of dealers as well, their offerings at public sale and at auction. References to the catalogue will show, that while few auction sales made in the country are omitted, the offerings of dealers at private sales are to be found here with scarcely an exception. A painstaking effort has also been made, in many cases attended with great trouble and some expense, to bring together the fugitive articles that have from time to time appeared in newspapers and magazines. A great quantity of these has been gathered, sufficient to fill a number of large wrap books. This vast amount of material, designed to illustrate Numismatics in America, historical and commercial, is doubtless unrivalled in extent by any other collection existing, and the owner regrets with it with much regret, and hopes to other and abler hands to complete a work which he has long contemplated.

- 1914 ——— a Selection; Voice of Angels; &c. 74 pieces
- 1915 ——— mostly arranged Alphabetically. A Collection, comprising sample copies, and in many instances complete files of most of these publications ever issued. It contains nearly all of the earliest, also samples of the various issues to the last; these publications, ranging in size from a postage stamp to a large quarto, are of various degrees of excellence in mechanical work; and in literary merit from many which are scarcely above contempt to others which do their editors and proprietors great credit for mechanical and literary ability. The youthful amateurs of the period are many of them found to-day among the leading editors of the country, and this collection, gathered with immense trouble and no small amount of expense, is commended to the attention of individuals and Public Libraries; especially the Library of Congress, on whose shelves it ought to be preserved as illustrating the growth of an industry, almost a profession, which has developed many able writers and business men. The collection is, without doubt, the largest extant, comprising, it is believed, not less than 10,000 pieces.

- 2719 THE SAME SERIES. Royal 4to. LARGE PAPER. Half muslin, turkey morocco, gilt tops, rough edges except Vol. VIII, unbound. Comprises the supplementary volumes IX, X.

All of these volumes were issued in limited editions. Of more than 50 copies, of Vols. I. and II., though announced at 15 copies, only 15 were delivered to the printer. The issue of this series reduced the cost and beginning of the prices for the production of large paper books, which came next overwhelming American book collectors, and before orders could be supplied the volumes were being sold by dealers and others at ten times the price at which the owner of the edition was at the time supplying them. The large paper excitement in the United States almost equalled the Folly mania in Holland, and the abundance was marked and caused by the issue of innumerable books, whose sale remuneration was simply that they were a reminder of ours in a number of manner; and while large paper copies of standard works are still prized and will always continue to be, the rubbish referred to has, by the tide of time, been swept out of sight.
